

Interactive Player Application Form Help

(See attached pictures on Pages 2,3)

The interactive player app allows the user to fill in fields on your computer and then print the application once it is completed. The form cannot be 'saved' in the 'normal' manner of saving a document. However, there is a way to 'print' the document (once it has been filled in) to a PDF format, which effectively 'SAVES' a copy of the filled out form. In order to accomplish this, your PC will need to have a 'PDF printer' utility installed. There are several FREE utilities that do this and they are relatively easy to setup and install. The following link is one that is fairly user-friendly.

This utility has the ability to 'print' any MS document to a PDF format.

AFTER you have confirmed you have a utility to print to PDF (or installed the one mentioned above) – then -

The Sequence of events to fill out and 'SAVE' a form should be

-Start the interactive application on the website and fill in the form entirely – This form has 'pick lists' to help speed up the data entry. When the application appears you will also get a message informing you that you cannot 'save' the file. Close the warning and continue filling in the form.

-When the form is complete – Find the 'printer button' at the top of the form and click it. Select 'CutePDFWriter' (or whatever your PDF utility is) and then hit OK. A "Save As" box will appear with a default document name like:

C__Documents and Settings_SGF...erActiveSGFSAplayerAPP[1].pdf

Rename the file to something like ... TeamnamePlayername.pdf

The default directory is 'MyDocuments'
